

Andrew Hendry, CFA

CEO Singapore, Head of Distribution Asia

Andrew Hendry is CEO Singapore, Head of Distribution Asia at Janus Henderson Investors. In this role, his primary focus is to maintain, grow and diversify the distribution business across Asia (excluding Japan and Australia). Prior to joining the firm, he was head of distribution Asia Pacific at Aberdeen Standard Investments from 2018. He was a managing director at Westoun Advisors from 2016 and head of Asia Pacific, managing director with M&G Investments from 2011. Andrew began his career at The Capital Group Companies in 1998, most recently as director of global business development from 2002.

Andrew received his MA degree in economics and French from St Andrews University and an MBA from INSEAD. He holds the Chartered Financial Analyst designation and has 25 years of financial industry experience.

---

Janus Henderson Investors

The notion of 'connecting' is powerful – it has shaped our evolution and our world today. At Janus Henderson, we seek to benefit clients through the connections we make. Connections enable strong relationships based on trust and insight as well as the flow of ideas among our investment teams and our engagement with companies. These connections are central to our values, to what active management stands for and to the long-term outperformance we seek to deliver. Janus Henderson's investment professionals have expertise across all major asset classes and clients spanning the globe.