Janus Henderson INVESTORS

A sub fund of Janus Henderson Capital Funds plc

Objectives and Investment Policy

The Fund aims to provide growth of your investment over time, while seeking to maintain a low correlation to equities and bonds.

The Fund will implement a range of alternative investment strategies through exposure to a asset classes such as equities (company shares), fixed income (debt that is issued by a government or a company that can be bought and sold and which gives the right to receive income), currencies and commodities such as oil, metals or agricultural produce. Investment selection is based upon the risk and reward factors of each strategy or asset class.

The Fund makes significant use of financial derivatives (complex financial instruments) with the aim of generating additional returns or income for the Fund, to reduce risk or to reduce costs within the portfolio.

The Fund may invest in other types of eligible investments which are disclosed in the Prospectus.

Due to the nature of the investment process and the types of instruments in which the Fund may invest, it may have higher portfolio turnover compared to other funds. Portfolio transaction costs are paid from the assets of the Fund in addition to the charges set out in the Charges section below and may reduce its returns.

You may sell your shares generally daily (i.e. on a business day for the Fund).

This share class does not pay you an income but instead reinvests it to grow your capital.

Risk and Reward Profile

Lower risk ← → Higher risk

Typically lower rewards — Typically higher rewards

1	2	3	4	5	6	7

The category is calculated based on historical data and is based on price movements in the share class (volatility), and may not be a reliable indicator of future risk. The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may change over time.

The lowest category does not mean the investment is risk-free.

This share class is in category 4 because of rises and falls in the simulated historical performance data in the simulated portfolio.

The risk category does not take into account the following risks of investing in this share class:

Investment Risk: The value of an investment and any income from it can go up or down, and the Fund may not achieve its investment objective. When you sell your shares they may be worth less than you paid for them.

Equities: Shares can lose value rapidly and typically involve higher risks than bonds or money market instruments. The value of your investment may fall as a result.

Default Risk: An issuer of a bond (or money market instrument) may become unable or unwilling to pay interest or repay capital to the Fund. If this happens or the market perceives this may happen, the value of the bond will fall.

Interest Rates: When interest rates rise (or fall), the prices of different securities will be affected differently. In particular, bond values generally fall when interest rates rise. This risk is generally greater the longer the maturity of a bond investment.

Derivatives and Leverage: The Fund may use derivatives towards the aim of achieving its investment objective. This can result in 'leverage', which can magnify an investment outcome and gains or losses to the Fund may be greater than the cost of the derivative. Derivatives also introduce other risks, in particular, that a derivative counterparty may not meet its contractual obligations.

Exchange Rates: If the Fund holds assets in currencies other than the base currency of the Fund or you invest in a share class of a different currency to the Fund (unless 'hedged'), the value of your investment may be impacted by changes in exchange rates.

Liquidity: Securities within the Fund could become hard to value or to sell at a desired time and price, especially in extreme market conditions when asset prices may be falling, increasing the risk of investment losses.

For a more detailed explanation of risks, please refer to the "Risk Factors and Special Considerations" section of the Prospectus.
